Jon Smith

123, Elite Estate
Houston, TX 77036
(713) 123-4567
jonsmith@mail.com

Objective: I am looking for the job of an art teacher in a reputed art school where I can share my expertise and knowledge of the various art forms with my students and help them develop a liking to various art forms

Experience:

2003 to Present	J Edwards High School	Missouri

Art Teacher
- Qualified students in art, like, sketching, designing, work of art and sculpturing.
- Arranged lesson strategy and set lessons objectives. Selected books and art materials for courses.
- Revealed techniques and procedures to students.
- Monitored and evaluated students' job in order to finish student development or to make hints for improvement.
- Talked with students, their parents, and counselors to solve any of student's queries

2000 to 2003	Thomas High School	Missouri

Art Teacher
- Professional in education more areas of art, like art olden times, design, and the profitable art.
- Managed preparation and administration of student challenges and arranging of art shows and obtainable instructional and clerical support in classrooms.
- Movement in training students with the disabilities.
- Skilled weekend painting seminars and an evening classes to adults, both beginners and master-classes.

Education: California Arts University   NY

Master of Art in Education   2000
- GPA: 3.8

California Arts University   NY

B.A. Degree in Fine Arts   1997
GPA: 3.9

Honors:
- Member of American Association of Art Teachers, 2003 to present

- Member of American Association of Fine Arts, 2007
- Chairman of Missouri Arts Teachers Association 2009
- Occupied in a school-wide practice of continuous self-improvement, Performed towards the improvement of school practices. Maintained courteous and positive relations with colleagues & administrators. Acknowledged ultimate responsibility of the academic progress of students. Adhered to school policies and practices..Worked collaboratively with the school's special teaching staff.

References: Available upon request