

Janice Smith

123 Waterwood Drive
New York
999-999-9999
janicesmith@xyz.com

Objective: Interested in the position of Infection Control Nurse with a reputed health center/ hospital.

Experience:

XYZ Health Center New York
Infection Control Nurse 3/3/2005 to Present

- Directed and coordinated infection control program in hospital.
- Compared laboratory reports with communicable diseases list to identify conditions that required infection control procedures.
- Consulted with hospital personnel concerning precautions to be taken to protect people from possible contamination or infection.
- Investigated infection control problems and arranged for follow-up care for persons exposed to infection and disease.
- Instructed hospital personnel in universal and specific infection control procedures.
- Trained new nurses on the job.

Education:

State University of New York New York
Bachelors of Science in Nursing 2005

License:

Licensed to practice in the state of New York

References: Available upon request