

John Smith

123 Elm Street • New York • 999-999-9999
smithjohn@xyz.com

Objective: Interested in a position of a Pediatric Dentist in a reputed Dental Clinic or Hospital, where I can learn and enhance my skills as a Dentist.

Experience

Your Employer
Pediatric Dentist

Employer City
Start Date to Present

- Provided dental care for infants, children and adolescents.
- Fabricated space maintainers designed for patients.
- Treated primary and secondary teeth.
- Constructed and placed bridges, dentures and obturating appliances suitable for growing arches.
- Managed patients with behavioral problems and handicapping conditions.
- Counseled and advised patients and family on growth and development dental problems of patient.
- Provided preventive services through use of fluorides and sealants.
- Instructed patient and family members on dental care.
- Provided basic patients with basic instruction in dental hygiene.
- Maintained and evaluated records of patients' dental health.
- Exposed and developed dental X-rays.
- Created and Placed temporary fillings and periodontal dressings.

Education

State University of New York
Bachelors of Science in Dental Hygiene

New York
2005

State University of New York
Doctors Degree in Dental Surgery

New York
2009

Certifications

Certified Dental Surgeon, Board of New York

License

Licensed by the State of New York to practice dentistry and pediatric dentistry

References: Available upon request